at the end of the track. Walk up hill and you will see a large fishing lake through the trees on your left. Follow the track round until it reaches the hedgerow. At this point take the path branching off to the right.

4. Stay on this path with the hedge to your left and the field to your right. Walk straight for 200 metres and then continue into the orchard, before crossing the little bridge into another larger one.
5. At the end of the trees the path meets a track. Turn left at the white oil drum and walk up towards the farm. Just before the track reaches the barns, take a diagonal right between the silver birch trees and the farm, following this path until you see a path running beside the static caravans.
6. Turn right, following the path past the caravans and then continue round to the left walking through the gap in the hedge. Continue past the house and then along the top of the orchard.
7. Follow the hedge until you see a large hole. Walk through this and cross the road with the care, the Bell Inn will be on your left.
8. When ready to continue your walk, turn left after the pub into Victoria road and walk for 200 metres until you reach the stream. Just before the bridge, take the path to your left and follow this until you come to a small footbridge. Cross over into the field and then turn left, tracking the river westwards.
9. Once you reach the fence at the end of the field, cross back over the river using the large wooden bridge and follow the path uphill between the field and the paddock. Keep going until you see a chain gate on your right. Pass through this and then turn left, walking up the driveway before turning right into Blackmans Lane.
10. Continue along the road until you see a footpath on your left. Take this path and walk along the edge of the field heading towards the oast houses in the distance. Keep looking back for more impressive views of Hadlow Tower.

11. Once you reach the oast houses turn left and follow the grassy path between the fields until you reach Three Elm Lane. Turn right and walk up the road with care for 400 metres, the Carpenters will be on your right.
12. Upon leaving the Carpenters Arms, turn left out of the pub, heading towards Golden Green. Walk down the road with care for 50 metres until you see a large gate on your right. Pass through the gate and trace the edge of the field heading South West. Keep going under the trees and continue along the edge of the field.
13. Once you reach the end of the field the path crosses a track. Walk straight ahead, through the bushes and across the narrow bridge. There will be another pond to your left and a little stream to your right. Walk past the wall and the broken stile and the path leads you into a field overgrown with brambles.
14. Pass through the rusty kissing gate and at the end of this path you will reach a newer wooden gate. At this point turn left down the driveway walking past Great Fish Hall. At the end of the drive turn right along the concrete path and pass through another kissing gate. Turn right again, walking past the pile of manure until you meet a farm track. It's at this point that you will meet the path from St Andrews.
15. Turn right and walk through the kissing gate and back through the paddocks, climbing the two stiles as before.
16. Cross the track and follow the path back up through the two orchards, concluding your walk at St Andrews.
